

(b)

(d)

(f)

(a)

(c)

(e)

(g)

(a) Free examination

(b) Estimate material circumstances of the family?

(c) Give the ages of the people?

- (d) What had the family been doing before the arrival of the unexpected visitor?
- (e) Remember the clothes worn by the people
- (f) Remember the positions of the people and objects in the room
- (g) Estimate how long the visitor had been away from the family

Students should respond to the following questions.

- For each task scenario encapsulate the result in a single sentence
- What is the "control" in this experiment?
- What does this tell us about eye scanning in general?
- What seem to be some of our default points of interest?
- What are the big picture implications for sense perception in general are revealed by the Yarbus data?